Dear Beverly and Friends at Arapaho UMC,

It is my pleasure to send our warm greetings and best wishes to you and your church community.

At the beginning of this month, nations across the globe honored International Workers' Day, bringing attention to the continued struggle for the rights of workers. El Salvador is no exception. With little opportunity for formal employment, many Salvadorans have had to seek a way to make a living informally, without a contract, thereby excluding them from the legal protection of a minimum wage, safe working conditions, a standard work week and the benefits of health care, retirement fund, etc...

In order for someone to have a greater chance at getting formal employment, education is key. Through your donation of $1,939 for scholarships for four youth in the Study Support Program of the Building Hope in Ahuachapán project, you have invested in their future. In doing so, you not only change the lives of Claudia, Luis, José and Josseline as individuals but, through their success and example, provide hope to other youth and a more promising future for the community.

Thank you and God bless!

In gratitude,
